Male Arrested for Felony Threats of Violence

At approximately 11:45 a.m. Tuesday, April 18, Duluth Police responded to a male making threats via Facebook. Officers continued to investigate the incident and were able to locate his whereabouts. DPD's Patrol Crews C & B, Crisis Negotiations Team, and Tactical Response Team responded to the scene. At approximately 8 p.m., the male was taken into custody in the 800 block of Charles Ave without incident.

The male, later identified as 30-year-old Duluth resident Trevor Billings, was arrested, transported to a local hospital for an evaluation, and lodged at the county jail for pending charges of Felony Threats of Violence.
